

C

Here are the official answers. The questions that seemed to give a little trouble were 10, 15. Hoodie (Mr Cameron was alleged to have encouraged us to "Hug a hoodie" – though he didn't quite use those words), 27 We needed Boxer shorts, 28 ("Been there, got the t-shirt"), 32 (HMS Pinafore by G&S), 35, 36 we grimaced but also allowed "cap" – question should have been phrased better, 37 We needed Wellington Boots. Both the prize-winners had all the answers we'd intended!

1	Apparently accommodates 40 quarts up top	Ten gallon hat	21	What Desmond wears for ballet?	Tutu
2	Connecting the head of a large marine reptile to its body	Turtleneck (jumper)	22	As worn (musically) by a small rodent in a Dutch windmill	Clogs
3	From an atoll, sometimes yellow with polka dots	Bikini	23	Baseball equipment poetically lost by young cats	Mitts or mittens
4	Helmet exposing part of the face and possibly worn by the gallant six hundred	Balaclava	24	Maybe coming from Wormwood to be worn in hospital	Scrubs
5	Fosbury, Edwards and Beamon, sometimes woolly	Jumper	25	Is in to garb like a Roman	Toga
6	Neckwear for William Tell and Robin	Bow tie	26	Knitted opening sweater from the west Wales bay?	Cardigan
7	Often feather, worn loosely around the neck but sometimes can constrict	Boa	27	Not long - and ideal underwear for Cooper, London and Liston	Boxer Shorts
8	Sounds like they steal female underwear	Knickers	28	Casual top, said to be got after going there.	T-shirt
9	Sounds wholly minty - worn for chukkas?	Polo (shirt)	29	Headwear in a well-fed or a satiated type	Fedora
10	The topping from Melton Mowbray perhaps	Pork pie hat / Pie crust hat	30	Took property without permission - worn around the neck	Stole
11	Trousers that might be thought to include a clanger at the end	Bell bottoms	31	Straw headwear for three men but probably not Montmorency	Boater
12	Workwear covering everything	Overall	32	Sleeveless garment - the craft of William Schwenck and Arthur	Pinafore
13	(groan alert) - what the constable jokingly said his chest was under	A vest	33	Worn over and goes with gooseberry, Cod, Horn and Wrath	Cape
14	Directional marine headgear	Sou'wester	34	A two-piece in the rain or a one-piece for the water	Wetsuit
15	A former PM was said to have encouraged embracing this casual top (or the person wearing it)	Hoodie	35	Tailored briefs that might be expected to disappear in a triangle	Bermuda shorts
16	A hooded coat, found in tartan or a knitted object	Anorak	36	Worn on top by Trueman, Anderson and Willis?	Bowler hat or cap
17	Footwear formed from transgressive additions to coffee and cocoa mix?	Moccasins	37	Footwear created when Notts shopkeeper Jesse met an Iron nobleman	Wellington boots
18	Headwear found in a sombre room	Sombrero	38	A schoolchild's jacket from a roaring fire	Blazer
19	A type of bread, flowers on display or knee-length knickers	Bloomers	39	Protection in the kitchen or the front of a stage	Apron
20	Apparently belonging to Ms Harlow, Ms Shrimpton, M. Cocteau or M. Renoir	Jeans	40	Headgear traditionally worn by Dr John's companion solving a speckled band mystery	Deerstalker hat

Thank you for all your support. You are welcome to use this quiz for your own purposes – I can also send you details of previous quizzes
 andy.stoker@btinternet.com